Happy hour down in the pit is cheerful indeed with very drinkable $2 bubbles a virtue of being on good terms with a leading Mornington Peninsula winery. Snakepit offers a wine lounge, Japanese grill combo, sporting the talents of Mitsuo, a master sushi chef. In addition, owner Neil Prentice is a local breeder of the famed wagyu beef, which hints at the calibre of food you can expect and makes it such a popular lunch destination. Meanwhile the intuitive service will keep you planted in the leather banquettes with a glass that fills seemingly through mental telepathy. M.MATTHEWS
