

red wine over $25

Prentice Whitlands
Pinot Noir 1998 $27

From a high-altitude vineyard, this is a light but charming pinot at a friendly price.

Sappy, slightly gamey and sweet-cherry aromas turn ethereal and perfumy with airing. It's fine and persistent in the mouth, with good fruit-sweetness, delicacy and intensity.

Food: game risotto.

Ageing: drink within three years.

